- New Wind for the Opposition in Maharashtra?
Recent developments have drawn the campaign discourse firmly into the sociocultural ground of Maharashtra. - Page 7
- Darkness under the Lamp
The vicious killing of two Dalit children for defecating in the open shows a certain “cast(e) of mind.” – Page 8
- Gandhi’s Conception of Harijan
The core normative principle of the Gandhian conception of Harijan is examined. – BY Gopal Guru - Page 10
- How Much of RBI’s Profit Transfer Is Enough
The Jalan Committee’s recommendations for the Reserve Bank of India to pay dividend to the government out of its current year’s surplus only after meeting the contingency risk buffer, is a smart move towards the proverbial act of fine-balancing. – BY Partha Ray, Ashok Banerjee - Page 13
- Towards ‘Schoolification’ of Early Childhood Years
The draft National Education Policy recommendations on early childhood care and education reduce it to school preparedness, effectively risking all the achievements made so far in this sector. – BY Neenu Suresh - Page 17
- Maoist Justice vs Liberal Justice: A Tribute to K Balagopal
Using K Balgopal’s positioning on human rights vis-à-vis the Maoist movement’s communitarian approach to rights as the backdrop, a theoretical approach to human rights is presented. – BY Tanay Balantrapu – Page 21
- Bengaluru’s ‘Zero’ Out-of school Children
The manner in which migration and education interact in often unanticipated ways in urban spaces is examined by drawing on a fieldwork narrative from Bengaluru. – BY Vijitha Rajan - Page 30
- Literature Festivals: Institutions, Crisis and Talk-culture

A prologue to a debate on the cultural phenomenon of literature festivals in India, this essay offers ways to think about them, beginning with the event itself. – BY Sushil Sivaram – Page 35

- Reconciliations of Caste and Medical Power - An analysis of medical interactions shows that as compared to non-Dalits, Dalit patients experienced more apathy, denial and avoidance behaviours from rural public health service providers. – BY Sobin George – Page 43

- Wage Penalty in Temporary Employment in India

The extent of wage penalty between workers in permanent and temporary jobs at different locations of the wage distribution is examined by evaluating the impact of worker's characteristics on education. – BY Panchanan Das – Page 51

- Parentheses of Philosophy

The authors of Gandhi and Philosophy: On theological Anti-Politics respond to A Raghuramaraju's review of their book, "Gandhi in the Company of Western Philosophers" (EPW, 3 August 2019). – BY Divya Dwivedi, Shaj Mohan – Page 60

- The Power and Gender of Policy Credibility

There exists a contradiction between actual truth and the truth in our language in the field of policy credibility. – Page 10

- India's Slowdown: What It Is and What Can Be Done

Investment in industry have slowed down considerably in the recent years, as has agricultural growth. Falling levels of capacity utilization, building up of food stocks and the state of liquidity in the economy sufficiently prove that the problem today is the lack of demand. – BY Ishan Anand, Rohit Azad – Page 11

- Virtuous Cycle and Economic Growth in India

A critique is offered after examining the claims in the Economic Survey that the concept of virtuous cycle is of recent origin and that during the planning period, the planners were unaware of such a way of imaging economic progress. – BY M Parameswaran – Page 16

- Reflections on the Disciplinary of Business History

Business studies must take the archive much more seriously than they do not as an inert repository of facts and engage with the historical method with much greater rigour. – BY Lakshmi Subramanian – Page 19

- Seasonal Migration in Beed District of Maharashtra
Seasonal migration compensates for the lack of employment opportunities during the dry season and reduces seasonal income variability of the poor households in Beed district of Maharashtra. – BY Abdul Jaleel C P – Page 30
- Reflections on Moving Agricultural Research from Laboratory to Farm
In generating innovative technologies for sustainable agricultural development, agricultural researchers must think beyond laboratory viability and successful field testing to adaptability in the real world for a range of agriculture stakeholders. – BY R S Wilson, Wijeratnam – Page 36
- Finding Balmikis
This article traces neo-Hindu politics which tried to categorise the Balmikis as Hindu, even as colonial accounts mentioned them as cult worshippers of the Muslim saints Bala Shah and Lalbeg – BY Rajiv Atwal – Page 43
- Culture and Sanitation in Small towns in Odisha
In the current sanitation policy discourse, cultural norms of purity and pollution are considered major obstacles to toilet use, leading to an emphasis on behavioural change. This calls for a decoding of the cultural determinants of sanitation. – BY Ranjita Mohanty, Anju Dwivedi – Page 51
- Postscript Ajay Naronha on how the felling of trees in Mumbai's Aarey Milk Colony is not just an attack on the city's green cover but also a blow on its mental landscape and the well-being of its citizens, Nirupam Hasra on how wall art lends colour, honour and dynamism to our politics, while reiterating our constitutional rights, Aditi Upmanyu on locating a critique of the present day liberal feminist project in the fiction of Jean Rhys; and Last Lines by Ponnappa. – Page 61

- Mounting Plastic Waste With the surge in plastic refuse, the “out of sight, out of mind” mentality will not work. –Page 7
- When Vegetable Prices Blow Up
The government's strategies to tame vegetable prices are misplaced in both scope and coverage. – Page 8
- Four Transfers and One Saving Grace

With the controversies over the transfers of judges having brought the collegium's credibility to a nadir, the decision to discuss and debate allegations against nominee judges is a welcome step. – BY Alok Prasanna Kumar – Page 10

➤ NITI Aayog's Helath Index: Missing the Rigour

Based on a critical review of the NITI Aayog's recently published "Healthy States, Progressive India," it is argued that the report provides only a superficial insight into the overall health attainment. – BY Subir K Kole – Page 13

➤ Planting of Illegal Crops

The backdoor entry of illegal genetically modified seeds is gaining momentum in the name of progress and of choice, while the absence of a strict regulation regime is sorely felt. – BY Meena Menon – Page 16

➤ Nuances of the Left Debacle in Tripura

The divide between tribal and Bengali communities in Tripura was effectively utilized by the Bhartiya Janata Party, which has led to a precipitous erosion of the base of the Communist Party of India (Marxist). – BY V Bijukumar – Page 19

➤ Lessons from Kolkata's East-West Metro Disaster

The disasters faced during the construction of the east-west metro corridor in Kolkata reiterate the need for redefining the roles and responsibilities of the stakeholders involved in such projects. – BY Partha Pratim Biswas – Page 23

➤ Sukracharjya Rabha (1977-2018)

Sukracharjya Rabha's theatre practice departs radically from previous attempts by the exponents of the "Theatre of Roots" movement to indigenize theatre in India and formulates a critique of it. – BY Rajdeep Konar – Page 32

➤ What is the Effective Delivery Mechanism of Food Support in India?

Through a mixed methods analysis across Bihar, Odisha and eastern Uttar Pradesh, the factors explaining the diversity in the preference for the delivery mechanism are assessed. – BY Mamata Pradhan, Devesh Roy – Page 37

➤ Medical Negligence and Law

India has adopted the Bolam rule from the United Kingdom and has been using it to adjudicate cases of medical negligence, but its application has been inconsistent and likely to have an impact on the decisions made by medical practitioners. – BY M P Ram Mohan, Vishakha Raj – Page 45

➤ Muslims, Affirmative Action and Secularism

This article attempts to partially reconcile the contradiction between religion-based preferential treatment and secularism and analyses the determination of welfare policies for religious minorities, particularly Muslims within the non-preference, non-determination framework. – BY Zubair Amhad Bader – Page 53

- Turkey Invades Syria
Great power games and regional calculations have trumped Syrian Kurdish aspirations. - Page 8
- Perils of Relying on American Support
The contemporary wars in the Indian subcontinent have seen an increasing involvement by the United States and India seemsto be relying on American support to achieve its objectives in Kashmir. – BY Atul Bhardwaj – Page 10
- Agricultural Technology Transfer and Commercialisation
The management and transfer of agricultural technologies for commercialisation purposes is considered to be a new concept in India, but there is an upward surge that can be attributed to the recent transformation of the agribusiness ecosystem. – BY Manoj P Samuel. Karim Maredia – Page 13
- Troubles with Cash Food Subsidy
A pilot project of cash food subsidy through the direct benefit transfer system to replace the public distribution system in Nagri block of Ranchi district in Jharkhand is analysed to highlight the problems experienced by the state. – BY Barun Kumar Barnwal, Mrityunjay Pandey – Page 17
- Stares of the Blind: Neglected Facet of Human Bonding
The ways in which blind people connect to the art of seeing without the ocular equipment of the eyes are explored, recognizing that seeing is as much a political act as it pertains to human bonding. – BY Hemachandran Karah – Page 20
- Caste and ‘Seeing Double’
Some possibilities internal to Aniket Jaaware’s Practicing Caste: On Touching and Not Touching are explored so as to bring newer resources of thought to our discussions of caste in India and South Asia. – BY Sasheej Hegde, Sanjay Palshikar – Page 27
- FRA Implementation in West Bengal
Empirical evidence from West Bengal shows that actual land recognition is far less compared to what has been stated in the Scheduled Tribes and Other Traditional Forest Dwellers (Recognition of Forest Rights) Act, 2006 – BY Bidhan Kanti Das – Page 32

- Pushing Back Delhi's 'Day Zero'
Drawing from a selection of documents and interviews, it is shown how several disincentives deter people from acting on the clarion call of household-level rainwater harvesting in New Delhi. – BY Georgina Drew – Page 41
- Subaltern Historiography, the Working Class and Social Theory
The Subaltern Studies Collective told the story of the Indian Freedom Movement via the bottom-up contributions to Indian history, but surprisingly, what became known as Subaltern Studies has downplayed the empirical role of the working class. – BY Kristin Plys – Page 49
- Postscript
Gana Shruthy M K on the status of the tiger in India and the issues with the state's response to the territoriality conflict between humans and animals; Ananya on Saeed Mirza's parallel cinema echoing the working class's discontent and frustrations emanating from the Great Bombay Textile Strike; Koaren Mathias relates the story of a bus ride through the Garhwal region; and Last Lines by Ponnappa. – Page 61

- Governors and the Fifth Schedule
The uncritical extension of legislations to scheduled areas has been in violation of constitutional provisions enshrined in the Fifth Schedule and has had disastrous consequences for tribes. – BY Virginius Xaxa – Page 10
- Local versus 'National' Issues
The run-up to the Maharashtra state assembly elections as well as the immediate aftermath has been anything but smooth between and for the BJP-Shiv Sena alliance. – BY Dhaval Kulkarni - Page 12
- Touch, Untouch and the Depositions of Uncchishta
Ethnographic insights about the devotional percussion instrument, khol-made by untouchables, but touched by all castes-are used to analyse the complex sensory and linguistic underpinnings of caste. – BY Sukanya Sarbadhikary – Page 15
- Faculty Development Training and Quality of Education
While the University Grants Commission's Academic Staff Orientation Scheme is still operational, courses offered under it are hardly contributing towards quality improvement in higher education. – BY Anirban Sengupta – Page 21

- Revisiting Keynes's Technological Unemployment
To understand the anxiety around the current status of technology development, the historical perspective on the short-and long-run effects of technological progress on labour substitution, post the Great Depression, is traced. – BY Ashish Kumar Sedai – Page 21
- The Future of Globalisation: Learning from History
The contours of the present era of globalization since its inception, circa 1975, show that the successive epochs of globalization during the second millennium came to an abrupt end because of their own consequences embedded in the process. – BY Deepak Nayyar – Page 30
- From Jobless to Job-loss Growth
Data for 2011-12 and 2017-18 shows that the unprecedented decline in the number of workers in the Indian economy in recent times is the result of a dynamic process of job creating and destruction. – BY K P Kannan, G Raveendran – Page 38
- Land as Collateral in India
The extent and patterns of the use of land as collateral for borrowings are mapped using All India Debt and Investment Survey of 2012-13 data, supplemented with insights from a field survey in select talukas of Maharashtra. – BY Sudha Narayanan, Judhajit Chakraborty – Page 45

Staff Development Programme

From 9th December 2019 to 11th December 2019, the VIVA College library and ICT Club organized Staff Development Programme (SDP) for Non-Teaching Staff. The prime objective of this programme was to provide a learning platform for staff members to improve their computer skills and Team Building.

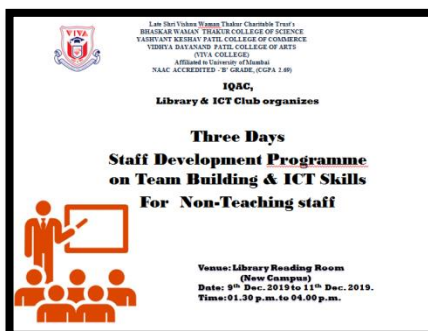

The programme was held at 1.30. p.m. in the library reading room and computer lab and experts (Resource Persons) were invited to share their expertise with staff.

Ms. Rashmi Sawant Department of Psychology, Mr. Brijesh Joshi Department of CS & IT, Ms. Harshali Mhatre Department of CS & IT, Ms. Dorin Rebello Department of CS & IT, Ms. Gauri Vartak Department of CS & IT and Ms. Prajakta Hatkar Department of CS & IT from VIVA College trained the staff about Team building and Computer Skills.

The programme was a new learning experience for staff and will enhance their capacity and improve their efficiency level.

The programme was concluded with the distribution of certificate and valedictory function.
